

English Language Learners and Immigrant Workforce

Q & A

March 13, 2017

Q. Are you requiring letter of support or MOU for the partners working with the Local Workforce Development Board on the project?

A: In review of the RFA no language has been identified that letters of support or MOU is required to submit an application. However if awarded funding letters of commitments are required before execution of the subgrant.

Q: Will you accept more than one application from a local area?

A: Yes, more than one application can be submitted from a local area. The eligibility is through local boards. Local boards partner with local non-profits or adult education partners. Applications must be in collaboration with local board.
