

Summary of Changes to the State Plan Concerning Local Workforce Development Areas and Local Workforce Development Boards

List of Local Workforce Development Areas in the State

The list of Local Workforce Development Areas has been updated to reflect the consolidation of the Napa-Lake Workforce Development Board, the Marin County Workforce Development Board and the Mendocino County Workforce Development Board into the Workforce Alliance of the North Bay and the consolidation of the San Bernardino City Workforce Development Board with the San Bernardino County Workforce Development Board.

Chapter 2, Section titled “Local Workforce Development Boards and Areas” the number of Local Areas has been changed from forty-seven to forty-five.

Chapter 6, Section titled “Previous Assessment Results of Core Partners and One-Stop Partner Programs”, the number of Local Areas has been changed from forty-eight to forty-five.

State Plan, Appendix A has been revised to reflect changes to the List of Local Workforce Development Areas in the State, including board consolidations in addition to updates to local board names. The updated list can be found here.

List of Local Workforce Development Boards

The list of Local Workforce Development Boards has been updated to reflect the consolidation of the Napa-Lake Workforce Development Board, the Marin County Workforce Development Board and the Mendocino County Workforce Development Board into the Workforce Alliance of the North Bay and the consolidation of the San Bernardino City Workforce Development Board with the San Bernardino County Workforce Development Board.

Chapter 2, Section titled “Overview of Workforce Development Activities in the State and Background on Client Populations Served” the number of Local Boards has been changed from forty-seven to forty-five.

Chapter 2, Section titled “Local Workforce Development Boards and Areas” the number of Local Boards has been changed from forty-seven to forty-five.

Chapter 6, Section titled “Previous Assessment Results of Core Partners and One-Stop Partner Programs”, the number of Local Boards has been changed from forty-eight to forty-five.

Chapter 6, Section titled “The State’s Approach to using Program Data Integration and Interoperability”, the number of Local Boards has been changed from forty-seven to forty-five.