

2021 Collaborative Statewide Peer-to-Peer Event Featuring:
California Labor Federation, Northern California Indian Development Council
(NCIDC), and LA Cooperativa Campesina de California (La Cooperativa)
Questions & Answers

1st Presenter
California Labor Federation

No questions asked during 1st presentation

2nd Presenter
Northern California Indian Development Council

Q: Do you work with San Francisco Workforce Development Board? I see there are 46 tribal businesses listed.

A: Yes, we do. We are available statewide.

3rd Presenter
La Coopertiva Campesina de California (La Coopertiva)

Q: How would a farmworker get free solar panels?

A: Funded through Cap and Trade. There are restrictions and has eligibility requirements. $11 million has been provided to serve farmworkers. The farmworkers can apply through Proteus

Q: Can you, La Cooperativa share a success story with a specific employer during COVID-19?

A: La Coopertiva is a pass through entity. They have five contracted providers that provide the services to the Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker (MSFW). Email presenters if interested in hearing success stories.